CLOSING DAY EXERCISES

of

SAINT PETER'S CHOIR SCHOOL

Philadelphia

Friday, June 5th, 1931

PROGRAM

Chorus — The Wind's in the South — Scott

Piano Solo — The Meadow Lark — Ashford
Played by Edgar L. Clayton

Soprano Solos

a. If You Have a Sweetheart — Hawley

b. Come Down, Laughing Streamlet — Spross
Sung by Philip G. Warner

Chorus — Spring's Awakening — Sanderson

Piano Duo — Hungary — Koelling
Play by Robert W. Cubert and Henry J. Kerr

Soprano Solos

a. Daffodil Song — Wood

b. Love's in My Heart — Woodman
Sung by Paul H. Rainey

PROGRAM

"Pater Noster"

A Play in One Act

by Francois Coppee

Presented by the graduating class

Dramatis Personae

Mademoiselle Rose . . . . . Robert W. Culbert
The Cure . . . . . F. Pierce Coggeshall
Jacques Leroux . . . . . Jack H. Guy
An Officer . . . . . Reese W. Redden
Zelee . . . . . Clayton Fisher
Madam Blanche . . . . . William J. Rainey
Soldiers { Philip S. Thompson, William A. Morton, Henry J. Kerr, William J. Rainey

Scene: A room in the home of Mademoiselle Rose, Belleville, France
Time: May, 1871

Staged by Joseph S. Mayer, Class of '22
Scenery by Mrs. Velma L. Clayton

Address by the Reverend N. Herbert Caley

Awarding of Prizes and Diplomas

Alumni Scholarship Award

Winner in 1927: John Robert Diehl—average 92.6 percent.
Winner in 1928: John Robert Diehl—average 94.1 percent.
Winner in 1929: John William Ritchie—average 89.4 percent.
Winner in 1930: Robert William Culbert—average 93.6 percent
Winner in 1931: Robert William Culbert—average 93.3 percent

Star Spangled Banner

Benediction by the Rector

Graduating Class of 1931

FREABORN PIERCE COGGESHALL
ROBERT WILLIAM CULBERT
CLAYTON FISHER
JOHN HOWARD GUY
HENRY JOHN KERR
WILLIAM ARTHUR MORTON
WILLIAM JOHN RAINEY
PHILIP SMITH THOMPSON

The following pupils made the highest general averages during the past season:

ROBERT WILLIAM CULBERT, 93.3
WILLIAM DAWSON, 92.8
HENRY BRADFORD DARRACH, 92.4
EVERETT RITTENHOUSE BROWN, 92.2
WILLIAM JOHN MAYER, Jr., 91.5
WILLIAM ARTHUR MORTON, 90.2

School will re-open Wednesday, September 9th.